Citing Code & Data

Data

Chicago Style
Authors. Title of dataset. Place written: Organization, Date of publication. Distributor. Link.

MLA
Authors. Title of dataset, version. Place Written: Organization, Date of publication. Access method, date accessed. Link.

APA
Authors (first & middle name abbreviated). (Year). Title of data set (Version number) [Description of form]. Location: Name of producer. Link.

Code

Chicago Style
Software Name. Location: Publisher/Author, Date. Link if available.

MLA
Authors, Software Name, Place Written: Organization, Date Written. Link if available.

APA
Author Name (first & middle name abbreviated). Title of Software/Code. [Computer software]. Location: Publisher. Link if available.

Getting Cited Yourself

To get cited, share your data in a repository or publish your data in a data journal! This generates a citation and a persistent, stable location for your data, and bumps up your H-index!

guides.nyu.edu/citation/tools

This guide provides citation and bibliography assistance, including style guides, tools, and a schedule of classes to learn the tools!

Features and Functionality of Citation Management Tools
	RefWorks	EndNote	Mendeley	Zotero	Easybib
Access
Web Based	Yes	No*	No*	No*	Yes
Cost	Free	Free	Free	Free	Free
Adding References
Import from online databases	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No
Import citation information from web page	Yes	Yes (Web Component)	Yes	Yes	Yes